Stamp, worthy of victory. Let's vote for the Ukrainian postage stamp dedicated to the Carpathians!

The European postal and philatelic community is once again choosing the best postage stamp under the Europe program. The traditional international competition started on May 9.

In 2021, the theme of the issue of EUROPA postage stamps was "Endangered National nature". It is in tune with one of the most urgent tasks of the conscious part of Ukrainians - to prevent the destruction of the Carpathians.

This year, Ukrposhta presented one of the two stamps developed within the framework of this issue - "Scream of the Carpathians" at the Europe competition. The author of the issue is a young artist, a second-year student of the Faculty of Design and Advertising of the Kyiv National University of Culture and Arts Olga Simonenko. The introduction of postage stamps under the "Europe" program took place on June 9, 2021.

You can vote for the Ukrainian postage stamp until September 9, 2021 at www.posteurop.org/europa2021. The results will be announced by the organizers in October.

Beech virgin forests and ancient forests of the Carpathians and other regions of Europe are a UNESCO World Heritage Site (2017). Carpathian mountain forests are one of the most important shelters for large predators, including the brown bear.

According to the UN, the forests of the Ukrainian Carpathians are disappearing at an alarming rate due to illegal logging. This has already led to climate change, resulting in large-scale floods, flooded villages and roads, and the destruction of bridges. But the worst thing is the destruction of a unique ecosystem, because the Carpathians are a climatic factor in the whole of Ukraine.

Reference:

In 2019, Ukrainian postage stamps on the theme "Birds": "White Stork" and "Oriental Nightingale" by Natalia Kohal won gold in the competition "The best postage stamp in Europe 2019 - the choice of a collector."

In 2020, the Ukrainian postage stamp on the theme "Ancient postal routes" "Postman Fedor Feket" by Irina Medvedovskaya won silver in the competition "The best postage stamp in Europe 2020 - the choice of the jury."
